SONOMA, NOVEMBER 12, 1887.

Communications upon matters of local or general interest solicited. Communications designed to call attention to any matter of limited or individual interest will not be inserted unless paid for as an advertisement.

The author's real name must accompany all communications, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. This rule will not be deviated from.

The first truss of the great Poughkeepsie bridge across the Hudson river was finished and swung clear Monday. It is 325 feet long between the centers of the towers, and is the largest and heaviest steel truss in the world. It rests on steel towers.

DR. MACKENZIE telegraphs from San Remo as follows regarding the condition of the German Crown Prince: "There has been a recurrence of growth lower down in the throat. I am issuing unfavorable bulletins." Dr. Mackenzie states that the renewal of the discharge of pus from the Crown Prince's throat renders necessary a difficult and complicated cutting operation of the larynx.

BABON WOLVERTON, who died suddenly at Brighton Monday was a staunch friend of the Irish cause. He donated £100,000 toward the expenses of Home Rule candidates in the Parliamentary elections of 1886, and had frequently intimated his intention to spend a like amount at the next general election. He was one of Gladstone's closest friends.

NEARLY ten thousand miles of railroad track have been laid in the United States this year, and the total for the year will probably reach 12,000. Less than two hundred miles have been built in California, but it has been sufficient greatly to stimulate the growth of the State. Next year is likely to show a greater mileage in this State, and the crowded overland trains are daily bringing people to settle the lands to be opened.

COLONEL DONAHUE was asked the other day if his company intended to build a branch road into Napa City. He replied that he thought it one of the possibilities of the future, and he said it could be very easily accomplished by building out from Norfolk on the Sonoma branch. The distance from Norfolk to Napa City was only fourteen miles, he said. If he did build into Napa it might cause certain people more trouble than accustomed to him when they build into Santa Rosa.

A Chicago dispatch of the 9th inst., says: John Brown, son of the emancipator, sent a box of grapes to each of the Anarchists, including Nebe, from "John Brown's Vineyard." They reached the jail this morning with a message stating that the sender was a foe to monopoly and tyranny of any sort. Another search of the cells this morning was made, the only result being the finding of a red cord three or four feet long in Ling's cell. The cord was long and strong enough to have permitted the use of it for strangling purposes.

A Montgomery, Alabama, special tells a horrible story of the burning of two colored men. They had assaulted a young white woman and were captured by a posse of farmers. The young woman identified them on sight. A trial was had and the people decided that the two men should be burned to death. A log pile was built on the side of the public road, and the negroes were chained each between two heavy logs, then the four logs were chained together so that the wildest contortions of the wretches could not shake them. A fire was kindled, which soon blazed up and enveloped the bodies of the victims.

What is more desired by a young lady than a beautiful, clear complexion? She may have wealth, education and all the accomplishments which will fit her to be an ornament to society; but if she have a sallow countenance and her face be covered with pimples, it will avail but little. Let her remove the cause of all this disfigurement by the use of Freese's Hamburg Tea, and our word for it she will soon find her beauty fully restored.

Weyl's Cash Grocery Store is selling groceries at the very lowest rates. Call and be convinced.

MANUFACTORIES.

Any country or community that sells its raw products and receives in return manufactured articles of necessity and luxury, must necessarily grow poorer year by year, as each crop taken from the fields impoverishes and depreciates the value of the soil. A casual glance at the history of the nations of the world will convince even the most skeptical that no nation or community ever yet grew rich that relied upon the sale of raw products of the soil alone for profits. On the contrary, poverty has been the universal rule; and necessarily so, as they are compelled to buy all articles of commerce dear and sell the products of the soil cheap, the balance of trade being ever against them.

Though the Spanish countries of North and South America loaded fleets of ships from year to year, from the earliest conquests of Mexico, Central America and other sections of the continent, with precious metals, woods, dyes etc., they have ever been poor, the laboring classes degraded and the people dependent upon foreign manufacturing and commercial countries for articles of necessity and a market for their products, the purchasing countries fixing values of the articles sold or exchanged.

These universally acknowledged facts ought to remind the people of the rich and fertile Sonoma Valley of the necessity of building up and fostering manufacturing establishments at suitable points in the valley. This would enable us to put our raw products in an imperishable shape and they could then be shipped to markets at a distance. It is true our grapes are made up into choice vintages at home, but there is a long list of fruits for the production of which Sonoma Valley soil excels, that are produced at small profit for want of a home market, which can be supplied by building up and operating fruit canneries and driers. These will draw capital and give employment to labor in new channels, encourage immigration and improve the home market for every variety of products of the soil. There are large numbers of boys and girls in every community who would gladly accept situations in canning and drying establishments in order to earn support for themselves and thereby become independent and thrifty men and women, whose labor might otherwise be lost to the body politic and a large proportion become actually an expense to the public as criminals through enforced idleness.

Provide those disposed to labor with the means of earning an honest living in factories at home, make labor honorable and at the same time profitable and your taxes will be reduced, your products will bring better prices at home, your lands will enhance in value and the people will become correspondingly more prosperous, nappy and independent. On the other hand, continue to neglect the building up of manufacturing establishments in your midst and you will gradually decay as a community and the producers will continue at the mercy of buyers in distant markets who set the prices at which they shall dispose of the articles raised for export and also the prices of the goods taken in exchange.

The Philadelphia Times says: The country newspaper is the most useful of all the agencies which stamp the impress of progress upon village and inland cities. Without the aid of local newspapers towns are, as a rule, thriftless and dead. It is common for small great men to speak with contempt of the local newspapers, but the village newspaper makes great men out of less material—bricks without straws—than any other factor in politics, and it is the one ladder on which men climb to local distinctions as the beginning of wider fame. The advent of the local newspaper has always dated the increase of the thrift of the community. The local newspaper is the life of the locality and the measure of its support, as a rule, measures the advancement of the people.

Jesse R. Grant, son of General Grant, passed through Sacramento Saturday on his way to El Dorado county, where he is interested in mining property. His visit is purely a business one and he will remain on this coast but a short time.

Comparative Land Values.

Eighty acres of pasture land fed by cattle or sheep will yield $200. Twenty acres of barley will yield $200. Gross receipts estimated in all cases. Twenty acres of grain hay yield $200. Twenty acres of wheat yield $200. Twenty acres of oats return $200. Five acres of alfalfa produce $200. Four acres of apples yield $200. Two acres of apricots yield $200. Two acres of plums yield $200. One acre of figs brings $200. One acre of peaches produces $200. One acre of almonds yields $200. One acre of walnuts yields $200. Three-fourths of an acre of raisin grapes brings $200. Two-thirds of an acre of Bartlett pears produces $200. One-half of an acre of oranges yields $200. One-half of an acre of cherries yields $200. One-fourth of an acre of blackberries yields $200. One-fifth of an acre of olives yields $200.

An Astonished Subscriber. The infuriated subscriber had just rushed into the office, and a pale, spirituelle reporter faced him calmly and asked him what he wanted. "I want to know who wrote this scurrilous article about me." "I did." "You did? Sure it wasn't an error of the compositor?" "Certainly." "Isn't the proof-reader to blame?" "Not in the least." "You're man let me embrace you. I've been whipping editors all my life and you're the first one I ever met who did not blame the proof-reader or compositor."—Chicago Times.

Sound Sense. No merchant can not wholly depend for business upon the fact of his being well known to the trade. No matter how many years he may have been established, or how familiar his name is to the purchasing public, or celebrated his wares are, if he does not advertise and keep doing so in some way, buyers and consumers will in time ignore him and visit and trade with his competitor who sounds his trumpet upon all occasions to the extent of thousands of dollars a year, and pays the same without a murmur because it pays him to do so.—Dry Goods Chronicle.

A Handy Pocket Atlas. An attempt to put in pocket size the contents of a large reference Atlas is usually accompanied by rough, inaccurate and inelegant engraving and printing, but in the New Pocket Atlas of the World, published by Ivison, Blakeman & Co., 753 & 755 Broadway, New York, this is not the fact. Ninety-one Maps containing nearly every geographical point of interest throughout the world are given, and each is a gem of the engraver's art. Delicately yet distinctly colored, these maps are exquisite illustrations of the best color printing to-day obtainable. While the Maps leave nothing to be desired by way of fullness, they are fully up to date, and show every recent discovery, or change of boundary. One hundred and twelve pages of terse, well-arranged, and accurate information concerning every important country or state on the globe, follow the maps in this compact volume. In fact the book is not only a condensed Gazetteer of the whole world, and all put in an attractive and substantial binding, and sold for fifty cents. If not found at your booksellers, on the receipt of this sum the publishers mail it to any address.

The election Tuesday resulted in the Democrats carrying New York, Virginia and Maryland and the Republicans Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Iowa, Nebraska, Ohio and Rhode Island. Lost—A few days since, a Collection Book for St. John's Church, Petaluma. Gold capital letters (collection) on cover. The finder will confer a great favor by leaving the same at the Postoffice or by the INDEX-TRIBUNE office. Parties desiring to invest in vineyard and orchard property would consult their interest by calling at the Real Estate Agency of Raschen & Granice. They are offering some of the finest vineyards, orchards and farms for sale in Sonoma Valley. No boom prices asked. If you have a vineyard, orchard or farm for sale apply to Raschen & Granice, real estate agents. They will secure a customer for you.

Not For Sale.

An Associated Press dispatch of a late date says: Mervyn Donahue, in speaking about the rumors that the San Francisco and North Pacific Road was to be sold, says that they have not even a semblance of truth. The Donahue estate, he said, had decided not to sell the road, and under no circumstances would it be sold, unless some one was to voluntarily come up and offer a fancy price for it. He then went on to say that the road covered a good territory; that its outlook for the future was good, and that it would be extended and improved with the development of the country through which it runs. "Our road is going right north," the Colonel said, "and in another year it will have reached Ukiah, and the prospects are that it will branch from that town on a very extensive scale."

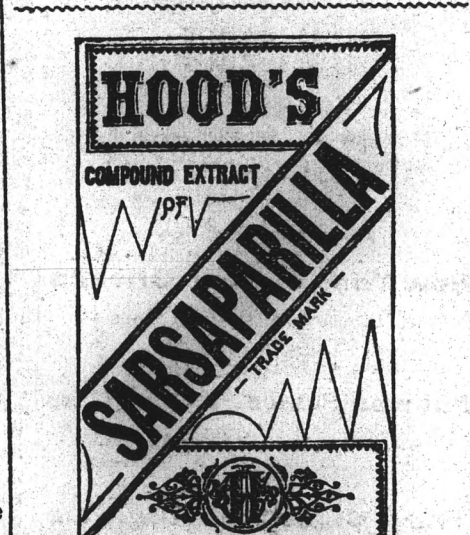

The Western Settler's Chosen Specific. With every advance of civilization into the far west, a new demand is created for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Newly settled regions are frequently less salubrious than older settled localities, on account of the miasma which rises from recently cleared land, particularly along the banks of rivers that are subject to freshets. The agriculturist or mining emigrant soon learns, when he does not already know, that the Bitters afford the only sure protection against malaria, and those disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, to which climate changes, exposure, and unaccustomed or unhealthy water or diet subject him. Consequently, he places an estimate upon this great household specific and preventive commensurate with its intrinsic merits, and is careful to keep on hand a restorative and promoter of health so implicitly to be relied upon in time of need.

The traveling public praise the Occidental Hotel, E. D. Moore proprietor.

The musical concert of the Sonoma Valley Band last evening was a grand success.

Wine making is about over. This year's vintage gives promise of being of exceptionally fine quality, but the quantity will fall far short of last year's vintage.

The ladies of Sonoma declare that it is astonishing how cheap goods are sold at Mundt's Cash Store. They say dry goods can be purchased here cheaper than in San Francisco.

The installation of officers of Juanita Parlor, N. D. G. W., will take place next Wednesday evening, after which a banquet will be given to the Grand Officers and a number of invited guests.

If you desire vine cuttings of all choice European grapes read the ad of Capt. J. H. Drummond of Glen Ellen, which appears in another column. He is the only vintner in Sonoma Valley at the present time who is offering vine cuttings for sale.

Ed. Steiger has placed on our table this week two bunches of Flame Tokay grapes that for size and beauty beat any that we have seen. These two bunches, together with a five-pound bunch of seedless Sultanias, filled an ordinary sized grape box.

Parties wishing a well dug or cleaned are referred to the advertisement of Wm. Schukowsky, which appears in another column. This gentleman thoroughly understands his business and money will be saved by employing him. Orders left at Weyl's store or at this office will receive prompt attention.

There will be a meeting of citizens to-day in Union Hall at 2 p. m. to hear the reports of the committees appointed at a previous meeting. Addresses will be made by Mr. George H. Maxwell and others. Let there be a full attendance as the matters to be discussed are of interest to property-owners.

We hear of numerous complaints of depredations by hunters on Sonoma Valley farms. Fences are broken down, stock stampeded, etc. There is only one way to guard against having one's premises overrun by reckless hunters, and that is to post notices in conspicuous places warning them to keep off. Those who have adopted this method are seldom annoyed.

There was a meeting of the Sonoma Valley Exhibit Committee at Agua Caliente yesterday. The meeting did not adjourn until late in the afternoon, after INDEX-TRIBUNE had gone to press, hence no report appears in this issue. A full account of what transpired at the meeting will be given to the public next week.

Grading on the Santa Rosa and Carquinez Railroad has been completed from Napa Junction to within a short distance of Glen Ellen. After the completion of the bridge across Napa Creek, which work is nearly finished, track laying will commence at a lively rate. The short of the Southern Pacific iron horse will soon be heard in our valley.

Mr. S. H. Shaw, whose orchard and vineyard contributed largely to the success of the Sonoma Valley Exhibit at the late Mechanics' Fair, has placed on our table a mammoth bunch of table grapes of the Emperor variety. The bunch is fifteen inches long and eighteen inches in circumference at the upper part of the stem. It is claimed that this variety of grape will keep until Christmas.

Mr. G. H. Maxwell, who has charge of the Sonoma Valley Exhibit in San Francisco, desires us to urge upon the people of this valley to contribute citrus and other winter fruits in order that the exhibit may be kept up in an attractive shape. The display in the Palace Hotel at the present time is very attractive but needs replenishing from time to time in order to keep it so.

A MISGUIDED GIRL.

Minnie Wolf of Healdsburg Elopes--The Sequel.

During the encampment of the National Guard at Healdsburg, in July, a young man from San Francisco named Gus Story became acquainted with a young girl, Minnie Wolf, of Healdsburg. The two became infatuated and so great was that infatuation that the couple planned an escape from the restrictions of her parents, who are highly respectable. She came to Santa Rosa, where she obtained a position as a domestic in a private family. This movement was but one scene in the drama which she had plotted. In a short time Story appeared in Santa Rosa and suddenly both he and Minnie disappeared and when next heard of were in San Francisco. The father of the girl upon learning of her departure at once communicated with the authorities of that city and after a search the girl was found, having been abandoned by Story, who feared arrest. He could not be found, and finally, the girl having returned home, the matter was dismissed for the time being. The subject of the girl's waywardness was again revived Wednesday by her second flight from home, accompanied by her former companion, Chief Crowley was informed of her departure and probable whereabouts in San Francisco, but before found she had returned home. Story was arrested and taken to Healdsburg Friday evening. He is a huckster in the employ of the Russ House and of unsavory reputation. Saturday morning County Clerk Mulgrew issued a marriage license for Gus Story, aged 26, and Minnie Wolf, aged 16, and they were married. They are now in a position where the yoke of filial obedience no longer fetters them, but free to act and think as they please. They will take up their residence in San Francisco and Minnie's dreams of happiness are doubtless realized. Santa Rosa Republican.

Going Rapidly Ahead.

Work is going rapidly ahead on the Santa Rosa and Carquinez Railroad. The road is graded complete and ready for tracklaying from Napa creek to a point one mile from Chauvet's winery, at Glen Ellen. The graders are divided into three sections and are scattered along the line between Glen Ellen and the graded part of the road. The heaviest work is now being encountered. Where it is necessary to make deep cuts blasting is called into requisition. For a distance of several miles the road parallels the Sonoma valley road on the north and east, and skirts the hill, opposite Chauvet's winery, several feet above it. The construction of the roadbed at that point will be accomplished with considerable difficulty, as the soil is of a cement and lime formation and will have to be blasted.

En Route to Napa.

Bernard Sherl, a grader on the Santa Rosa and Carquinez Railroad, passed through this place on his way to the Napa Insane Asylum in charge of Sheriff Colgan on Friday of last week. He is insane on the subject of religion and imagines that he has displaced the Creator, whose wrath is daily visited upon his devoted head. His insanity was brought to the notice of the Sheriff by the man himself who seemed to lack the usual cunning of the insane. He walked into that official's office and declaring himself "non compos mentis," and requested to be taken to the Asylum. An examination before Judge Rutledge confirmed the lunatic's statement and he was given his wish.

Sonoma Valley Abroad.

The London Graphic, the leading illustrated journal of Great Britain, in its issue of October 15th, contains a number of fine views of Ten Oaks Vineyard and Winery the property of Mrs. Kate F. Watfield of Glen Ellen, the leading lady viticulturist of the world. The engravings are from photographs taken by Matthews of San Francisco. Thus it will be seen that Sonoma Valley is attracting attention in the Old World and it is only a question of time when her wines and noted vineyards will be as famous of those of the most noted districts of France.

Personal and Social.

Mrs. M. McHarvey has gone to San Francisco to study telegraphy. W. P. Wilson returned from the city last Saturday evening after several days absence.

Rev. Father Esser, formerly pastor of St. Francis Church, is in town. He is the guest of Father Sullivan.

Mr. C. H. Ward left Sonoma for San Francisco last Wednesday where he will reside in the future. Mrs. Ward will remain in Sonoma for the present.

Sonoma Parlor, No. 111, Native Sons of the Golden West, gave a very pleasant social at Odd Fellows' Hall last Monday evening.

A long and interesting programme was successfully carried out and much credit is due all those who took part. At the conclusion of the exercises the guests were invited to partake of refreshments. The affair was a decided success and reflects much credit on the young gentlemen of the Parlor.

So ordered.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

On motion of Mr. Connolly the consideration of the Valley Ford road matter was indefinitely postponed.

The petition of Eli T. Sheppard, James B. Lang, Luther Knight and others, praying for a new road to be viewed and laid out in Sonoma township, to connect the Santa Rosa and Sonoma roads with the Sonoma and Glen Ellen roads, and beginning at a point on the Santa Rosa and Sonoma road near the center of the Madrona Vineyard and running thence in a southerly direction to a point on the proposed road where the Santa Rosa and Carquinez Railroad and the Sonoma Valley Railroad have located their depots; thence southwesterly across Sonoma creek to the most practicable point on the Sonoma and Glen Ellen road. John A. Brewster, A. D. Lowell and J. A. Box were appointed to view and lay out the road, and report to the Board at its next regular session.

In the matter of the petition of M. K. Carly, James B. Morris and others, asking the Board to view and lay out a road in Sonoma township to connect with the Sonoma and Santa Rosa roads, John A. Brewster, A. D. Lowell and J. T. Peters were appointed to view and lay out the proposed highway and report to the Board at the next regular meeting.

On motion of Supervisor Davis it was ordered that $3,000 be transferred from the Swamp and Overflowed Land Fund to the Indigent Fund.

Mr. Connolly moved that it be made the order of the Board that $334.30 be transferred from the General Road Fund to the Redwood Road Fund. So ordered.

Hines Effects His Escape.

Wm. Hines, who was employed as a waiter in the Sonoma House several months ago, and who left here and went to Redwood City, was sentenced to five years in San Quentin the other day for abducting a 16-year-old girl from that town and putting her in a house of ill-fame in Petaluma, and living off the earnings of her shame. He was to have been taken to the State's prison in a few days and pending his transportation was confined in the Redwood City Jail, from which institution he succeeded in making his escape last Wednesday evening. When the Jailor went around to lock up the prisoners for the night he saw what appeared to be Hines lying on his cot in the cell and locked the door without giving the matter further consideration. Next morning a hole was found through the brick wall in the water-closet and the prisoner missing. What appeared to be Hines in the cell was a cleverly arranged decoy to throw the Jailor off the track, while the prisoner was concealed elsewhere. The Sheriff and deputies are searching the country and notices have been sent out offering a reward of $50 for his apprehension.

Glen Ellen Gossip.

Quite a shower of rain, the first of the season, fell here last Friday evening.

The children of the Dunbar school gave a very pleasant exhibition last Friday.

S. I. Allen of Santa Rosa makes weekly trips to Glen Ellen and supplies the graders with choice beef and mutton.

Several windows were broken in Chauvet's winery last week by the heavy blasts that were set off by the Santa Rosa and Carquinez Railroad.

Mr. Allen Box was the recipient of a very pleasant surprise last Friday evening, the 4th inst. The occasion being his 35th birthday. Allen is one of our best young men and just think of it, girls, he is still single.

Geo. Beatty nearly met with a serious accident last Monday. He was engaged in storing hay into a barn and in attempting to shift one of the bales, which struck a projecting board in its upward course, the rope broke, precipitating the hay, with George as well, to the ground, a distance of fully 12 feet. Fortunately George landed on top and escaped with but a few scratches. The hay, we are also glad to state, escaped uninjured.

Mr. Herman Nauert and family left last Tuesday for Oakland and we learn will reside there permanently.

OLD TIMER.

COUNTY CULLINGS.

Carpenters, plasterers and painters are scarce in Petaluma and in demand.

The Donahue railroad extension from Cloverdale to Ukiah is progressing very rapidly. Eight hundred men are employed on the work which is being prosecuted night and day.

Two men are in jail in Santa Rosa charged with threatening the lives of their wives. One is George Laymance of Healdsburg, while the other, John Down, hails from Freestone.

While blasting in the tunnel on the extension of the S. F. & N. P. R. R., at Cloverdale last week, two men were caught in a cave of dirt and buried. One of them was taken out only slightly injured, while the other was so badly hurt that there are little hopes of his recovery. He was taken to the County Hospital last Saturday.

Ben Barnes, who had a narrow escape from death by falling through a bridge in Bodega township several weeks ago, and at which time he sustained a loss by his team being injured and wagon wrecked, was in this city Monday, consulting lawyers, with a view of bringing a suit for damages against the county. The carelessness of the Board of Supervisors in allowing the bridges to remain in such a condition is criminal and the county should be compelled to pay for losses arising from such.

Insane Woman.

Dominica Bacala, a married woman residing in this place, was taken to Santa Rosa last Wednesday and examined on a charge of insanity. For some time past she has been acting in a strange manner and recently has threatened to take her own life. She was committed to the Napa Asylum.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is a purely vegetable preparation, free from injurious ingredients. It is peculiar in its curative power.

What Am I to Do?

The symptoms of Biliousness are an appetite but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events. The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhoea or Constipation may be a symptom of the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be acidity and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if it does not effect a cure try Gauss's Acuter Flower. It costs but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.

Go to the Occidental Hotel if you want good accommodations.
